Program Overview

India Internship – 15 Day Clinical Training Program

Our 15-day internship to India is one of the highlights of studying with Kerala Ayurveda Academy. This trip of a lifetime will bring you to the birthplace of Ayurveda: Kerala. You will have the exciting opportunity to see first-hand how Ayurveda is embraced and practiced with phenomenal results as a fully-fledged medical system.

Kerala Ayurveda's medical team in India will supervise your hands-on training during the level II Practitioner program at our award-winning healing centers. Additional learning opportunities include a company tour to witness Kerala Ayurveda Limited's seed to shelf process of researching, cultivating, manufacturing and packaging traditional Ayurvedic formulations and high quality products. You will conclude the trip by experiencing the healing power of India's Ayurveda firsthand during a personalized rejuvenation program at our award-winning AyurvedaGram Heritage Wellness Center.

Prerequisites

For admission into the India Internship, student must be one of the following:

- Graduate or enrolled Ayurveda Practitioner (AP) student with four months of studies completed (through KAA 204)
- Graduate or student (on clinical topics) of an equivalent program - contact admissions@keralaayurveda.us to confirm eligibility

Course Objectives

The main goal of the India Internship program is to learn and appreciate how Ayurveda is accepted and practiced as a complete and self-sufficient medical system in India.

Clinical training during the program covers the science behind Ayurvedic patient histories, practical demonstrations of physical observation and examination, and how to evaluate Prakruti and Vikruti. The program will also focus on how to design individualized Ayurvedic treatment plans consisting of customized natural diet plans, healing herbal and nutritional supplements, detoxification with Panchakarma therapies, Rasayana rejuvenation and Ayurvedic daily and seasonal routines.

Additional learning and experiential opportunities will offer you an insider's look into the Ayurvedic industry to witness how herbs are manufactured into Ayurvedic medicines, and experience how the Ayurvedic healing protocol is performed firsthand.

We ask that you observe and respect the differences between the practice of Ayurveda in India versus the United States and other countries. You may return home and implement some of the principles that you learn, but please be aware that the scope of practice outside of India is different, and you may not be able to bring home all of the new techniques that you learn.

Program Format

Clinical Rounds

The majority of your clinical training will occur during clinical rounds and hands-on demonstrations while shadowing Kerala Ayurveda's medical team. You will witness how Ayurveda is practiced as a complete medical system and observe the unique scope of practice available to Indian clinicians. After the consultation, interns will have the opportunity to ask any questions they may have.

Cooking Class

Ayurvedic cooking will be demonstrated in the traditional Kerala style of preparation.

Yoga Session

Daily Yoga and meditation classes are available during your stay. These classes are encouraged but optional.

Herbal Garden & Product Manufacturing Tour

A pinnacle of the internship is a visit to our herbal garden in Cochin, where you will see more than 150 varieties of herbs being grown. One of our experts will guide you during the tour, identifying features of the various plants and their Ayurvedic usage. We recommend taking notes, photos and video to document your learning. We'll then visit our manufacturing unit where you will be shown how the Ayurvedic medicines are manufactured in large quantities.

Community Ayurvedic Health Camp

One of the tenets of practicing Ayurveda in India is devotion to one's community. Ayurvedic practitioners place the health and well-being of their patients, or rogis, first. In this spirit, Kerala Ayurveda sponsors a home for the elderly as well as an orphanage, providing a free health checkup every month for the tenants. You will have a special opportunity to volunteer at one of these camps and interact with the doctors and patients.

Assignments

You will be assigned a case paper analysis and presentation for peer review. This assignment will be detailed further prior to your trip.

Complete Rejuvenation Program

After your clinical training at The Health Village in Aluva, you will end your program by experiencing the healing power of Kerala's Ayurveda yourself at the heart of healing: AyurvedaGram, our award-winning resort! Your healing program will include:
